An Array of Rottenness Exposed in the Auditor's Office of Madison County.

Errors by Which Shortages in the Accounts of Treasurers and Ex-Treasurers Were Hidden-Tax Juggling at Logansport.

INDIANA.

Errors That Auditor Cara 'ay, of Anderson, Is Finding in His Books.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. ANDERSON, Sept. 24.-The Democrats in this county are a good deal embarrassed over recent discoveries of errors in the records in the saditor's office. showing a shortage in the county treasurer's accounts. Auditor John E. Canaday, the present incumbent, is responsible for the error, which, though clerical, is very annoying. He discovered that H. C. Calloway, whose term expired in 1889, had not been charged with $1,066 of taxes refunded. This was promptly paid into the treasury. The auditor then set about making a search, and this week found $777 more due in the same manner. He is now at work on the record of N. T. Call, ex-treasurer, whose term expired in 1887. He has already found between $1,200 and $1,400 due the county from him. This shortage was made by a mistake in entering the credits of the miscellaneous ditch tax duplicate. This evidence of loose business methods has permitted the Republicans to make a demand to open up the books. There is no telling what may be revealed by future investigations. In the meantime the Republicans of Madison county are getting in excellent condition for the next campaign.

EVANSVILLE, Sept. 24 .- A few minutes before 6 o'clock this evening John A. Lysles. employed in John A. Ratz & Son's sawmill, in the lower portion of the city, met cover. He was working in front of the double saws, when they became choked up, and taking a ragged piece of timber he attempted to clear the saws. One struck the piece of timber, driving it back with such force that it was driven into the lower part of his abdomen, passing clear through his body. His physicians say he cannot recover. He has a wife and two small chil-

MARTINSVILLE, Sept 24-During the reunion of the old Seventh Regiment here yesterday notice was taken of the meritorious conduct of Andrew Harshbarger, of Murdock, Ill., and four comrades of this regiment. These men were on picket at Culp's Hill, near Gettysburg, and but for their bravery the confederate forces would have gained a polition that would have been disastrous to the Union men. A confederate lieutenant and about a dozen soldiers were dispatched to ascertain the lay of the land in a certain direction, and were within the federal lines before they knew it. Harshbarger and his four comrades took the entire detachment prisoners, and thus prevented their communicating their information to the confederate general in command. A movement has been inaugurated to bring the matter to the attention of President Harrison and have them awarded gold medals for their service.

Glass-Makers Bury the Hatchet,

Special to the Indiapapolis Journal. MUNCIE, Sept. 24 .- The difficulties between the window-glass manufacturers and workers have been settled, and thousands of idle men will resume work Oct. 1. At the meeting of the committees representing the manufacturers and the workers held at Columbus, O., yesterday, the wage scale was settled upon the basis of last year's. The rules and usages are the same, with one exception, that is the working of glass that has been heretofore termed poor on account of being "seedy" or "cordy." Workmen in past years declined to work this glass unless they were guaranteed an average price of a day's work. According to the settlement such glass will be worked hereafter, if desired by the managers, and to be paid for as per quality.

More Democratic Tax Juggling. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

LOGANSPORT, Sept. 24 .- The County Commis sloners of Cass County have fixed the county levy at 20 cents. The valuation is $19,000,000 and the revenue thus derived $38,000. The county expenses have been for ten years about $78,000 annually and the last levies have been 8012 cents on the old valuation of $10,000,000. The Democratic scheme as laid down by Chairman Jewett is being carred out. Cass county pays $40,000 more into the State treasury than before, and county revenues are de-oreased $40,000 to even up. The county will collect just half enough to run it next year, a presidential election year.

Costly "Prohib" Celebration.

special to the Indianapolis Journal. VINCENNES, Sept. 24 .- William Hewitt asks $5,000 damages from Samuel Stuckey and others, prominent Probibition citizens of Monroe City, Knox county. At the recent town election the issue was "wet or dry," and the "Prohibs" won. As a to-ult they celebrated their victory with cannon and speeches, and all the surrounding country assembled there to participate in the raily. In the midst of the rejoicing the cannon burst, and a piece broke the leg of Mr. Hewitt. The explosion east a shadow over the subsequent proceedings of that day. And now the injured map asks the Prohibitionists to pay him an indemnity for the loss of his leg Weman's Relief Corps Convention. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

PORTLAND, Sept. 24 .- The district convention of the Woman's Relief Corps was held here today. Delegates were present from Allen, Wells, Adams, Blackford, Randolph and Jay counties. This order is taking high rank as a benevolent institution, and its good work and influence is being felt all over the State. The delegates were royally entertained at the Hawkins House. Mrs. R. P. Davis, of this city, was selected as a delegate to the national convention. The camp-fire to-night closed the work of the convention.

Cut in Two by a Street-Car. special to the Indianapolis Journal.

EVANSVILLE, Sept. 24 .- About 5 o'clock this evening Matthew Brady, the nine-year-old son of Mr. J. P. Brudy, while attempting to cross the street-railway track in front of an approaching car, stumbled and fell against the mules. The animals kicked him causing him to fall length-wise across the rail, and before the car could be stopped the wheels passed over one of his legs and across his body, cutting him almost in two. He was picked up and carried into a store near by, where he died in nve minutes.

ORIGINAL. No. 64. O'Clock Cake.

BY NELLIE CAMPBELL BEDFORD. Four cups flour, Two-thirds cup sugar,

One egg. Two scant cups milk, One tablespoonful butter. One-half teaspoonful salt,

Two teaspoonfuls Cleveland's Baking Mix, turn in two shallow pans and bake twenty minutes in a hot oven. Use only Cleveland's baking powder, the proportions are made for that.

There is a difference. With some baking powders, breads and cakes are coarse grained, as if the sugar was too coarse: with Cleveland's they are fine grained and spongy. With EVELAN others, cake gets huskyandcrumbly; with Cleveland's it keeps moist and fresh. Try it, Cleveland's.

MRS. SEARLES'S MILLIONS.

Her Husband Tells About the Codicils to the Will-Treated by Christian Scientists.

SALEM, Mass., Sept. 24.—Another crowded court-room greeted the opening of the third day of the Searles will contest. The examination of Mr. Searles was continued. Most of his testimony was in relation to the transfer of pieces of property at various times. A telegram from Mrs. Hopkins to her adopted son Timothy at San Francisco, three days before the marriage, was read. It said: "Marriage proposed and refused four years ago consummated Nov. 8, at 11 A. M. If possible let E. F. S. and myself receive your congratulations. Am writing you. Do not sail before the 18th." Witness did not recall hearing the telegram before. Had heard before the marriage that Timothy had had detectives following him. He did not like it, but still had no unfriendly feel-ings for Timothy. Timothy had said in the presence of his mother that he had looked them up as he was desirons of knowing the character of the man his mother was to

A will of Mary F. Searles, dated Nov. 22, 1887, with a codicil dated June 16, 1888, was produced. Witness knew of the will, but did not know of its contents until since his wife's death. This will gave $10,000 to John Harwood, a former coachman, and the rest dne was left in trust to Edward F. Searles. Timothy Hopkins and Thomas Stillman to psy the income in equal shares to Edward F. Searles and Timothy Hopkins during their lifetime, and on their death to whosoever they might designate by will or, failing a will, to pay it to their next of kin. The executors were same as the trustees. A codicil dated June 16, 1888, substi-tuted the name of Thomas Hubbard for that of Timothy Hopkins as trustee and executor, but otherwise confirmed the will. Witness had heard Mrs. Searles say that before her marriage she had made previous wills. She had never told witness that she had promised her first husband to hold her entire property in trust for Timothy. Never heard Mrs. Searles say when she first saw her little granddaughter, "Here comes the little heiress." Had destroyed some letters within a few weeks, but none from Mr. Stillman or his firm. Had destroyed some letters written by witness to the lady who was to be his wife, as he thought them "too stupid to keep." Never knew of Mrs. Searles being ill hardly a day, except her last sickness, which began in May last. There was a Christian scientist, Mrs. Morse, an acquaintance, called on Mrs. Searles in 1890 to treat her, and she also treated witness for indigestion. There was another Christian scientist about the 1st of July, 1891, Mrs. Day, of New York. There was no other Christian scientists or irregular prac-titioners called in. Herequested that they should not mention being called in: did not care about the fact being hawked about. Did not learn that Mrs. Searles's illness was considered critical until within two weeks of her death. There were no kindred to be notified who could be reached. Timothy being in Japan. Dr. Baker and Dr. Wesselhof were her attending physicians.

At the close of the hearing Mr. Burley called for all letters from Mr. Stillman or Mr. Hubbard to either Mr. or Mrs. Searles, or from them to the firm, and also the cash and check-books of Mr. Searles to be pro-duced at the adjourned hearing Oct. 14.

The Next Move. Philadelphia Record. After the flurry of the boomers in eastern Oklahoma shall have subsided, those who have been unlucky in their quest will probably turn their eyes longingly toward the Cherokee Outlet, to which a United States judge recently decided that the Cherokees had simply a right of usance, not of posseseion. Here are over six million scres of fertile land awaiting owners and occupants, and serving now only to nourish the predatory herds of wealthy cattle syndicates. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CAMBRIDGE CITY, Ind., Sept. 24.-A crowd estimated at five thousand witnessed four great events at the races today. The principal one was the exhibition mile of Nancy Hanks, in which she lowered her record two and onehalf seconds, making the mile in 2:0914. She was accompanied by Father John to the half, where the runner staggered and fell, throwing the rider over the fence, happily without serious injury to either. Doble held the seins over the phenomenal mare, and, upon his return to the stand, was received with a great shout of applause. The crowd had anticipated a great feat and was not surprised when

1:04: three-quarters, 1:36: mile, 2:0914. The four-year-old trot presented four of the fastest heats ever trotted by horses of that age. The great unbeaten Dr. Sparks, with a record of 2:184, lowered his colors to Belle Archer, of the Hermitage farm, Tennessee, when in the second heat the game bay filly beat him out in 2:154. The first heat went to Sparks in 2:18%, but after that Belle Archer was a winner in three straight beats, although at no time except in the third heat was Dr. Sparks over a half length in the rear. The 2:23 trot required five heats to decide. The 2:16 pace was a hot drive from wire to wire, and was not concluded, owing to darkness.

Frank Dortch, who was driven by Ed Greers, of Hal Pointer fame, landed the first heat in 2:15%, after a most exciting and stubbornly-contested race. It was dead-heat racing between Dorch, Bunco, jr., and Argot Wilkes until within a few feet of the wire, when Geers fairly lifted Dortch a nose to the front. The second heat went to Grant's Abdallab, after a terrific drive, in 2:1514. Lee H. passed the field on the home-stretch and collared the winner at the flag, but was unable to come

New York Advertiser. One of the trophies of the Navy-yard Hospital is the bust of an old Fiji chief, or king, which is bideously ugly. The commander of an American cruiser captured the chief for killing and eating a few of his European visitors and brought him to Brooklyn as a State prisoner. Here he grew sick on the degenerate diet of the Marine Hospital, and upon the doctor asking him one day what he would like for a change he said. "A baby." After awhile he was converted to Christianity, and in order to save his life was sent home to recuperate. He was a year or two back in Fiji when a missionary, who was his guest, noticed that he had two wives—a young one and an old—and told him it was contrary to Christian doctrine. "All right," he said. "I'll put away one." The missionary went on his circuit and did not see the chief again for some time. When he did see him he observed that he had only one wife, and congratulated him on the reform. "But," he asked, "what did you do with the other, the young one?" "I ate her," answered the old sinner, innocently; "she was fat add juicy, while Gurri-Gurri-ugh—the is tough."

THIRD STATE TICKET NAMED

Nebraska Republicans Select Their Candidates and Adopt a Platform.

Praise for the President, Secretary Blaine and McKinley-Present Silver Law Approved and Unlimited Coinage Opposed.

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 24 .- The Republicans or Nebraska met in convention, to-day, and placed the third State ticket in the field. The numerical strength of the three parties is so evenly divided that no one can predict with any certainty to which victory will fall. Of 214,000 votes cast in the State election a year ago the Republicans cast, in round numbers, 74,000, the Inde pendents 71,000 and the Democrats 63,000, except for Governor Boyd, who received a plurality. The convention was called to order by Chairman Watson, of the State central committee, who, among other things, said: "If the signs are true, the Republican national convention at Omaha, in 1892, will nominate the next President of the United States, and that man will be the glorious captain of the gallant ship of state, the skillful navigator, the fearless leader, the bright, the brilliant, the matchless Blaine."

At the mention of the name of Blaine a hidden cord running to the rear of the stage was touched and the portrait of the great exponent of reciprocity dropped in sight. The effect was magical. Five hundred delegates instantly sprang to their feet, and cheer after cheer resounded through the hall for the distinguished Secretary of State. In concluding his speech Chairman Watson introduced Hou. George W. Thummel, of Grand Island, as the temporary chairman of the convention. Chairman Thummel was greeted with cheers, and his speech was brief and consisted mostly in predicting Republican suc-cess. After the appointment of committees a recess was taken.

On reassembling the platform was pre-sented and adopted. It spoke of the rapid development of the State under Republican rule-a prosperity which should silence 'oalamity-talkers." It congratulated President Harrison on his wise and courageous administration, promising him support in the discharge of the duties devolving on him as the chief man of the Nation, and after paying tribute to Secretary Blaine. "America's favorite son," continued as fol-

We approve the si'ver-coinage act of the present administration, by which the entire products of the silver mines of the United States are added to the currency of the people, but we denounce the Democratic doctrine of free and unimited coinage of tiver as a financial to fey able to coinage of aliver as a financial to by able to precipitate the people of every city and every state in the Union in a prolonged and disastrons depression and delay the revival of hu iness enterprise and prosperity so ardently desired and now apparently near. The free and unlimited coinage of silver would tend to the hoarding of gold and force the use of cheap money in the payment of wages in every wo k-shop, mill. factory, store and for a, and tend to the scaling down of wages of the toliers, already depressed, and weakening the purchasing power of the coland weakening the purchasing power of the col-lar which would be used to purchase the product of the farmers We are in favor of having every dollar as good as any other dollar.

We demand the maintenance of the American system of protection to American industry and labor, the policy that has been identified with every period of our national prosperity, and we admire the genius of that heroic statesman, Wm. McKinley, jr., whom the people of Ohio will make their next Governor as a recognition of his magnificent services to the country. We also make their next Governor as a recognition of his magnificent services to the country. We also commend and indorse that policy of reciprocity by which the Central and South American nations and the Spanish Indias are being opened up to our trade upon favorable terms and by which the surplus products of our country may find a market and by which all our people shall receive in exchange therefor a long line of products which do not produce ruinous competition among our own people nor destroy the developing industries of our country.

Several planks in the platform were de-voted to denunciation of Democracy for its attempt to hoodwink the people and its hypocritical utterances on pensions, railroad affairs and other matters.

Supplementary resolutions were adopted greeting the Republicans of Ohio and demanding that the next national convention be held in Omaha. The following ticket was then nominated: For Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, A. M. Post, of Columbus; for regents of the State University, Senator H. P. Shumay, of Dawson county, and Charles Marple, of Douglass county. The convention then adjourned. The Rainbow-Chaser and the Reporter. NEW YORK, Sept. 24.-Calvin S. Brice, Senator-elect from Ohio and chairman of the Democratic national committee, had a consultation with John R. McLean, of Cincinnati, at the Fifth-avenue Hotel last night. Mr. Brice is just in from Ohio. After he had finished with Mr. McLean a reporter asked him about the Ohio situation. "Just take one of Mr. Fassett's in-terviews about how New York will go," said Mr. Brice, "or take an interview with any other prominent man about the way he thinks the election in his State is going, and change it to Ohio and to suit my poli-tics, and I will father it." Mr. Brice was asked how he stood on the silver question. He said: "If you can find out what I think about silver, just write all you want about it and sign my name.

will not contradict it." New York Could Not Get the Fair. NEW YORK, Sept. 24 .- The Union League Club tendered a dinner and reception to Hon. J. Sloat Fassett at its club-rooms to-night. Nearly every Republican of prominence was in attendance. After dinner the members and guests adjourned to the meeting-hall. where Chauncey M. Depew called the assemblage to order in a speech half humorous and half political. He spoke of the determination of the Democratic party to make the world's fair a conspicuous feature of the State campaign and claiming the Republican party allowed it to go to Chicago. The whole West, he said, wanted the fair. No one worked harder than the speaker to have it in New York, but the appeal of the western men was simply resistless.

The "Independent" News.

Rushville Regublican. The claim of the Indianapolis News to political independence has become a farce. Day after day it elaborates, distorts and colors whatever makes against the Republican party, just as it daily minimizes or keeps wholly silent concerning most things which would damage the Democratic party.

The Sentinel does not go further in its assaults upon Republican principles, men and measures than the News; and the Senzinel is the more respectable of the two, because it does not wear a mask.

Seems So.

The dense silence in the State of Indiana would seem to indicate that Hon. Isaac Pusey Gray has finally succeeded in fitting a muzzle to his presidential boom.
